CHAIR'S REPORT

Kislev/Tevet 5776
December 2015

Firstly, can I wish a mazeltov to Helen and Andy on their recent wedding. It was a real celebration and a short report and some photographs can be found on page 4.

I'd also like to thank those members who supported me at the AJEX Annual Service of Remembrance on 8 November 2015. The overall numbers attending seem to be dwindling every year and I urge you all to support this Service in 2016.

This year's Northern Chagigah has just taken place in Sheffield and it was great that a number of our members were there representing the Shul. The theme of the weekend was "Lighting the Way" and our own Sarita Robinson played a big part in organising this event. Hopefully, there will be a report on the weekend in the next edition of the Shofar Shalom.

Finally, I would like to remind you about two forthcoming events.

This year's Chanukah Service will be held on Friday 11 December 2015 and will be followed by a very special Chanukah Kiddush. The Service starts at 7.00pm and as this is also the sixth night of Chanukah, we will be lighting our giant Chanukah.

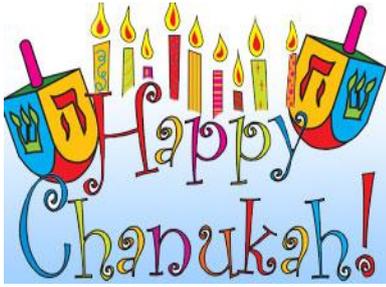

On Thursday 17 December 2015, there will be a meeting of the Friendly Circle in our Shul Hall starting at 2.00pm. I understand that there will be musical entertainment and this event is open to all members and friends of the Shul.

In the meantime, don't forget our Friday Night and Shabbat Morning Services.

THE WEDDING

This is a brief report on the wedding of Helen Jackman and Andy Harbert which took place on Sunday 25 October 2015. We would like to thank Veronika Keczkas who sent us photographs of the occasion, a number of which we have used within the report.

Just like buses, you wait 10 years for a wedding in our Shul and two come along almost together

Helen and Andy had been drawn together through their conversion course for many years and their journey to Judaism was constantly being changed, re-written and amended as the years went by. They persevered and eventually they finished their journey towards Judaism and so here they were today being married in the Jewish tradition.

It was an emotional affair. The Chuppah, a simply lit canopy in the centre of the Shul symbolising a home for the new couple. Friends and family surrounding the couple showing their love and support. The exchanging of rings. The reciting of vows and the smashing of the glass to herald the beginning of a new life.

What drama and what joy!

After the signing of the Ketubah by the happy couple, which was then countersigned by the witnesses and the Service leader, Helen and Andy retired for a few quiet moments to reflect and relax before re-appearing for the celebratory buffet and the 'mazeltovs'.

To sum up the experience, the food was excellent, the company stimulating and everyone felt involved in the Service. So, who's next?

HULL JEWISH COMMUNITY CARE (HJCC)

The last meeting of the Friendly Circle took place on Wednesday 11 November at the Pryme Street Synagogue. Jeanette Harrison was the guest speaker and Natalie Winetroube has kindly sent us this report.

The Friendly Circle continues to be successful and we all enjoyed the very inspiring talk that Jeanette gave us about the work she has done in Zambia and her adventures.

This involved helping very remote and poor villages where her training as a nurse in the Red Cross made a big difference to so many deprived people. I think that it takes a special person to do what she did by living without all the facilities that we take for granted and we can only applaud and thank her for her contribution to the afternoon.

I look forward to the next meeting of the Friendly Circle on Thursday 17 December at Ne've Shalom.

SYNAGOGUE COUNCIL MEETING - 23 October 2015

Ian Sugarman (Chair), Joanne Kearsley (Secretary), Tony Sevilla-Harland (Treasurer), Audrey Sugarman, Henry Goldstone, Ann Sevilla-Harland, Andy Harbert, Elaine Winetroube and Phil O'Driscoll

Business

The folding chairs for the cemetery had been purchased and their first use would be on Sunday 29 November 2015 at the stone setting of Helen Sprintz.

It was confirmed that the Shul's CCTV System, which was installed in December 2012, had been paid for and therefore belonged to the Shul and not to the security company. The Chair therefore asked the Secretary write to the company to terminate their inspection contract thus saving the Shul almost £200 per year.

The Chair reported that the High Holy Days arrangements went very well. The Erev Rosh Hashanah, Rosh Hashanah, Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur Services had been well attended. Ann reported that she had catered for 24 members and 2 non-members for the Rosh Hashanah luncheon and that the monies received from those staying for the luncheon had covered the cost of the luncheon. The luncheon was catered by Dave Eastburn and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The Simchat Torah Service was a very lively and happy evening which was enjoyed by everyone who attended. The buffet was again catered by Dave Eastburn. The funeral of Iris Pearce had taken place on Wednesday 7 October 2015 at Chanterlands Crematorium and the Chair thanked John Friend for conducting the Service.

The Treasurer reported that the Shul's finances were continuing to be in a healthy condition and that subscriptions and standing orders were still being received. He also reported that he was confident that the Shul's finances were now stable and were starting to show a surplus.

The Chair reported that everything was set for Helen and Andy's Chuppah, which would be taking place on Sunday 25 October 2015 at 2.00pm.

The Chair informed the Council that the AJEX Remembrance Service would be taking place at the Pryme Street Shul on Sunday 8 November 2015 at 2.45pm and he encouraged everyone to attend.

The Headstone Consecration for Helen Sprintz would be taking place on Sunday 29 November 2015 at noon followed by refreshments at the Shul.

After a brief discussion, the Council decided that instead of holding a Chanukah Social Evening, there would be a special Chanukah Kiddush after the service on Friday 11 December 2015. It was suggested that a Social Evening be arranged in the spring 2016.

It was felt that the little Sefer Torah should have 2 new covers, one for the High Holy days and one for the rest of the year. Ann informed the Council that one of her friends would be able to make them.

Ian agreed to lead the Friday Night Service on 25 December 2015.

Date of next meeting – Friday 4 December 2015 at 8.00pm.

NOT GUILTY!

The following article by Geoff Annis is based upon the sermon he gave on Yom Kippur which explored sinning.

“It’s a Sin To Tell A Lie” says the classic old song, which, with different words, finds its way into our Yom Kippur liturgy. Just one of a long list of offences for which we seek atonement. But, do we really feel guilty of this intimidating catalogue as we pray, or cherry pick the ones that we think apply and ignore the rest? And what purpose does Yom Kippur serve if we don’t improve ourselves annually?

Nevertheless, the High Holydays attract the biggest Shul attendance of the year, either because we need to confess, or feel obliged to attend because of tradition-a perfectly valid reason I believe. Just turning up is a virtue in itself.

The collective “We” is an issue however. If I over-drink or over-eat (see Minchah page 569) as I did recently, why should the whole congregation confess on my behalf?

In Bible times the Jews had it made, The High Priest was the only one at Yom Kippur allowed into the inner sanctum of the Temple ,and through a ritual like sprinkling animal blood onto the Ark of the Covenant could atone for the sins of all the people of Israel. All done for us. No problem! Today, we recognise the division of sins into VENIAL (mini-sins; not too serious-like swearing) and MORTAL (big sins like murder). But, we aren’t always honest about admitting our personal behavioural responsibilities.

The Ten Commandments are a great idea and the most important Jewish moral legacy to the world, because they make us individually accountable.. There’s a tale of how God gave the Jews the Commandments. First he asked the Egyptians if they wanted a Commandment. “Like ‘Thou shalt not commit adultery’” said God.”No way” they replied.”It would ruin our weekends. Next God approached the Assyrians if they wanted a Commandment “Well...like ‘Thou shalt not steal’.” They promptly replied” No way. It would ruin our economy.”Finally God asked the Jews.”How much ?” they asked. “They’re free, “said God. “Great- we’ll take ten!” That’s why we’re so God fearing?!

The Neilah selichot say that, ideally, Yom Kippur is the beginning of a journey from inside ourselves, outwards to the needs of others and the wider community:

“The great work waits for us at every moment and calls to us...The starving need our food..the uncared for need our love, the rejected need our understanding. We need Your light so that we do not fail them nor leave them in darkness.”

This perhaps is the true message of Yom Kippur and in a perfect world the fundamental aim of all religions. But we and our world aren’t perfect and there’s a long journey ahead. May God give us strength to reach our destination.

ASK THE RABBI

When lighting the Chanukiah, do you use the same shamash each of the 8 nights or do you let each night's shamash melt as well and use another the next night?

The shamash may be re-used each night, if desired, since its purpose is only to serve the other lights (shamash = servant). However, the shamash should also burn each night for at least a half-hour after dark, so it may not be practical to re-use it.

There are two uses of the shamash. One is to light the other candles, and the second use is to provide light so that we are not "making use" of the light of the Chanukah candles - which are to look at but not to use - but are using the light from the shamash as well. Of course, the Chanukah candle light is also there, but since the shamash is providing light it is considered as if we are using its light and not that of the Chanukah candles.

So, according to the first reason, the shamash could actually be put out after lighting and re-used. However, due to the second reason it should burn at least a half-hour after nightfall - along with the Chanukah candles - and then can either be extinguished or let burn out. I hope this has been clear and helpful.

YOU TRY FINDING FUNNY CHANUKAH JOKES

Hymie decides it's time his son Jacob got married. So he and his wife, Becky, call in the shotchen. A shotchen is a Jewish lady who makes introductions with a view to marriage.

'I want you to find for my boy Jacob the most marvellous example of Jewish womanhood,' explains Hymie. The shotchen goes off and returns three weeks later.

'Have I got a girl for your Jacob,' she announces. 'This girl runs a kosher house, she goes to a synagogue three times a week; not only that, she knows all the prayers by heart. This girl is the perfect example of Jewish womanhood at its finest. And on top of all that, not only is this girl a lovely person, she is a real beauty. She's beautiful.'

Jacob says: 'Excuse me, could I ask you something?'

'Sure,' says the shotchen.

'Is she good in bed?' asks Jacob.

'Vell,' replies the shotchen. 'Some say yes, some say no.'

Traditionally, Jewish Yahrzeits are remembered on the Hebrew date, which means that there might be some variation in the English date each year.

If the Hebrew date is observed, it must be remembered that the Yahrzeit starts the evening before. Memorial prayers for the deceased will be recited during the Friday Night Service for those Yahrzeits which fall during the coming week. If a Yahrzeit falls on a Friday Night, please remember that the prayers will usually be recited during the Friday Night Service the week before.
