CHAIR'S REPORT

Av/Ellul 5776
August/September 2016

As you might expect, the Council will shortly be very busy preparing for the High Holy Days.

Andy, our new Vice-Chair will be sorting out the arrangements for the Rosh Hashanah buffet luncheon, Joanne, our Secretary will be shortly ringing round all our members to find out their availability over the High Holy Days, whilst Phil, our new Warden, will soon be putting together the complex Mitzvot and Readers lists for the High Holy Days. Henry is already organising the cutting of the hedges surrounding the Shul and Aimi, our new Treasurer, keeps reminding us about unpaid subscriptions.

I am pleased to report that this year's Erev Rosh Hashanah, Rosh Hashanah, Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur Services will all be led by Student Rabbi Danny Newman, with support from the members of Shul. Danny is a fourth year rabbinic student at Leo Baeck College and has experience of leading Services and working in Communities. We look forward to meeting him.

We will be continuing the security process this year by again asking those attending to confirm their ID by giving their name and address and that of family members, friends, etc to the Security Officer. It's all explained on page 5.

Regarding Rosh Hashanah, the Council has obtained the services of Dave Eastburn to provide a buffet luncheon following the Rosh Hashanah Service. This is to encourage those attending to stay on for a "sit down" meal instead of having to organise a meal at a local restaurant. There is a token charge for those staying to cover the cost of the food. Further details can be found on page 3.

There is also the opportunity to send New Year's greetings through the Shofar Shalom. Details can be found on page 9.

Finally, please don't forget to come to our Friday Night and Shabbat Morning Services. Dates and times of these Services can be found on page 11.

Following the recent success of the August meeting of the Friendly Circle, HJCC have great pleasure in inviting the community to another of their Friendly Circle afternoon teas on Wednesday 14 September 2016 at 2.00pm. The event is taking place at the Pryme Street Synagogue and as usual, there will be a “sumptuous repast”, before which, there will be some planned entertainment.

For further details or to request a lift, please contact Harold Flasher, Chairman of HJCC, on (01482) 655537 or 07766 416 605, (or indeed, any member of the committee).

ROSH HASHANAH BUFFET LUNCHEON

This year, the Shul will again be providing a buffet luncheon, prepared by Dave Eastburn, following the Rosh Hashanah Service on Monday 3 October 2016. Andy, our Vice-Chair will be organising this and will be ordering a similar menu as last year, including the ever popular fish goujons!

To cover some of the costs, access to the buffet will be by ticket only. The cost of each ticket will be £12.00 for members and £15.00 for non-members, payable in advance. Please send cheques made payable to “Hull Reform Synagogue” to Andy Harbert at Brooksmead 278 Hull Bridge Road, Tickton HU17 9RT, or see him in Shul.

PAYMENT OF SUBSCRIPTIONS 2016/17

As agreed at our recent AGM, there will be a modest increase in single membership of about £1.00 per month. The optional burial insurance premium has been set independently by the Joint Jewish Burial Society (JJBS) and therefore was not under the control of the synagogue.

The new subscription rates for single, family and 18-30 memberships and for the optional JJBS burial insurance scheme has been included in the letter to be sent to all members.

If you have still not received a letter regarding your membership, please contact Aimi by telephone on 01482 835 864 or at a.sugarman@hotmail.co.uk

Subscriptions can be paid in one lump sum or by standing order, but subscriptions need to be paid in full by 31 March 2017. For more advice on how to pay, please contact Aimi.

SYNAGOGUE COUNCIL MEETING

22 July 2016

Present - Ian Sugarman (Chair), Andy Harbert (Vice Chair), Joanne Kearsley (Secretary), Aimi Sugarman (Treasurer), Audrey Sugarman, Phil O'Driscoll, Henry Goldstone, Malcolm Rosenberg, Elaine Winetroube and Jim Lightowler

Business

The Chair welcomed Aimi and Malcolm to the Council. The Chair informed the Council that although Suzanne had now moved away to Leeds, she had very kindly offered to maintain the Shul's facebook page and any marketing needs. The Council thanked Suzanne for her very kind gesture.

The Chair reported that the Shavuot Service held on Sunday 12 June 2016 had been well attended and he thanked those who had prepared the Kiddush. The AGM had also been well attended and it was good to see so many members present. He thanked Malcolm for taking on a Council position and Aimi for agreeing to step into the Treasurer's post. Aimi replied that although she was happy to carry out the Treasurer's activities, she also had career and work commitments. She therefore asked if anyone could assist her and Malcolm agreed to help Aimi, where he could, to fulfil this very demanding post. The Chair also thanked Andy for taking on the Vice-Chair duties and to Phil for agreeing to become the Senior Warden.

The Treasurer reported that the Shul currently had a very healthy current account, but she was concerned about the Shul's insurance and investment portfolio. The Chair confirmed that the last time the building and contents had been valued was many years ago, whilst the investment dated back to when the building was completed. In order to provide an up-to-date valuation for the Shul's building and contents, the Treasurer would arrange for Beercocks and Atkinsons, Estate Agents and Valuers, to carry out a valuation for insurance purposes to ensure that the current insurance policy covered the value of the building and contents respectively.

With regard to the investment, there might be a problem with accessing the money tax-free, as Clerical Medical had been sold to Capitol International and the investment fund was now banked outside the UK. The Treasurer also pointed out that she had looked at the Shul's Trust Deed for the land and she was aware from the constitution that the Shul belonged to the members and that it was always the case that any monies raised by the sale of the Shul would be apportioned equally to all full members. This was confirmed. The Treasurer explained that in order for this to occur, she would have to draft a Declaration of Trust which would have to be signed by the three Trustees. The Chair thanked the Treasurer for all her time and effort in these matters and this was echoed unanimously by the Council members.

The Chair also reported that Michael Guilas, under the heading of Adult Social Care Co-ordinator, would be co-ordinating volunteers to contact and visit those members and 'friends' who were either not able to attend Services, or had been absent for some time. The Chair also confirmed that Student Rabbi Danny Newman would be leading the High Holy Day Services. It was also agreed to hold a Friday Night Open Service on Friday 18 November 2016. The Chair stressed that it would not be as lavish an affair as the previous one.

Date of next Council meeting – Friday 22 July 2016

HIGH HOLY DAYS 5776

This year, we are delighted to announce that the High Holy Day Services will be conducted by Student Rabbi Danny Newman supported by members providing readings during parts of the Services.

All Services will take place at Ne've Shalom, the Hull Reform Synagogue, Great Gutter Lane (West) in Willerby and members are reminded that all Services will start promptly.

Although admission to these Services is open to all it is intended to continue the procedure by which only members, and people known to members, are admitted in to the Shul. It would be much appreciated, therefore, if members bringing guests, or out-of-town family could either inform the Catering Co-ordinator, Audrey Sugarman, on (01482) 563835 or the Shul Secretary, Joanne Kearsley, on (01724 340506) in good time prior to the day of the Service, as this might save any embarrassment on the day.

This year we are again asking those attending to confirm their ID by giving their name and address to the Security Officer at the door of the Shul.

Once the Service has started, the gates to car park will be locked and the Security Officer will be patrolling the grounds. If required, they can unlock the car park gates. The outer door to the Shul will also be secured and the CCTV will be used to identify late-comers.

SERVICE TO CELEBRATE THE 250TH ANNIVERSARY OF JEWISH SETTLEMENT IN THE CITY OF KINGSTON UPON HULL

This Service to celebrate the 250th Anniversary of Jewish Settlement in the City of Kingston upon Hull, was organised by the Hull Jewish Representative Council (HJRC). The following address was given by Michael Westerman, the President of the HJRC, at the commencement of the Service. We have had to edit the address due to a shortage of space, but we hope it accurately reproduces the essence and scope of Michael's comments. Enjoy.

Welcome to our service celebrating 250 years of Jewish life in the city of Hull.

The heart of any Jewish community is the Synagogue, so distinguished guests, ladies and gentlemen, let me take you on a trip down memory lane.....

Central Synagogue, Cogan Street Synagogue, Linnaeus Street Synagogue, Osborne Street Synagogue the Park Street Synagogue and the Reform Synagogue, founded by the late Geoffrey Levy and Aubrey Gordon.

Remember Lower Union Street... Hull Judeans Maccabi, the home of cricket, soccer, snooker and table tennis teams, as well as a drama group. I am sure many of you remember Tuesday nights at Madeley Street Baths and then back for fish and chips (in paper) with a gherkin and then into the Judeans club!

I personally remember happy days in the "attic", the home of BBYO and I am sure many of you do as well! I wonder if Maureen Lipman realized how successful an actress of stage and screen she would become, when she attended the weekly meetings there?

Eventually the Jewish Institute's premises were demolished and the move was made to the Parkfield Centre, in Parkfield Drive, which became the home of the Hull Hebrew Communal School as well as the Communal Centre for the Community and home of the popular Drama Group.

In every walk of life, the Jewish contribution to the wholesale, retail and service industries of Hull has been prolific and wide ranging, but, distinguished guests, friends, more important, what about the political contribution many Jews have given to the City of Hull? Did you know that between 1856 and 1983 there were two Jewish Mayors and 7 Lord Mayors as well as Sheriffs, Aldermen and Councillors.

The Jewish community took in many children from the Kindertransport, through the good offices of Philip Bloom, B'Nai B'Rith, the Levy family and the Quakers. Robert Rosner, taken in as a young boy, by Kitty and Leo Schultz, made a great architectural contribution to the building of the Humber Bridge.

Many of the Jewish community fought in the two World Wars with several losing their lives fighting for their country. Hull AJEX should be congratulated for remembering their memory by having an Annual Service of Remembrance, held in this Synagogue.

The Hull community has always looked after its elderly. The Board of Guardians established the Flatlets on Anlaby Road, later known as Menorah House, now known as Hull Jewish Community Care. Monthly meetings through the Friendly Circle, welcoming anyone interested. All Hull's Jewish organisations are represented today, through the Hull Jewish Representative Council.

Obviously, in the time allowed I have not been able to mention everyone or everything the Hull Jewish Community does, so I apologise, to those I may have inadvertently, omitted. Many people may have left the city, or sadly passed away, but we still have a vibrant community, thanks to the efforts of Rabbi Lifschitz and the Executive and members of this Synagogue and also the hard working Executive and members of the Ne've Shalom Synagogue... and of course you, the Hull Jewish community!

Of one thing, I think all assembled here today, celebrating the 250th anniversary of Jewish settlement in this wonderful city of ours will agree, is that the Hull Jewish Community, certainly has punched... and continues to punch, well above its weight... and long may it continue to do so.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE MONTH OF ELLUL

The following article has been re-produced from chabad.org.

The origins of Elul as a month of special Divine grace and mercy go back to the time of Moses, in the year 2448 from creation (1313 BC) - the first year after the Jewish people went out of Egypt.

Seven weeks after the exodus, the people of Israel received the Torah at Mount Sinai and entered into an eternal covenant with G-d as His chosen people. But just 40 days later, while Moses was still up on the mountain, they violated their special relationship with G-d by worshipping a golden calf. Upon descending from the mountain and witnessing their transgression, Moses smashed the two stone tablets on which G-d had inscribed the Ten Commandments; he then returned to Mount Sinai for a second 40 days to plead with G-d on Israel's behalf.

On the early morning of the 1st of Ellul, Moses once again ascended Mount Sinai, taking with him the stone tablets he had hewn, by divine command, for G-d to re-inscribe the Ten Commandments. On the mountain, G-d allowed Moses to "see My back, but not My face" (which Maimonides interprets as a perception of G-d's reality, but not His essence) - the closest any human being ever came to knowing G-d - and taught him the secret of His "Thirteen Attributes of Mercy" (Exodus 33:18 – 34:8)

For the third time, Moses remained on the mountain for 40 days, from the 1st of Ellul until the 10th of Tishri (Yom Kippur), during which time he obtained G-d's whole-hearted forgiveness and reconciliation with the people of Israel. Ever since, the month of Elul serves as the "month of Divine mercy and forgiveness."

All contributions are accepted on the understanding that the authors are responsible for the opinions expressed which do not necessarily reflect the views of Ne've Shalom - the Hull Reform Synagogue.

The following is the Rosh Hashanah message from, Jonathan Arkush, the President of the Board of Deputies, to which the Hull Jewish Representative Council is a community member.

In 5776, the Board of Deputies' profile has been raised to a new high. We are setting and leading the national agenda on the matters which count for Jews in this country. When allegations of anti-semitism emerged in Labour we confronted the problem head-on, raising concerns robustly in a face-to-face meeting with party leader Jeremy Corbyn. We were quoted throughout the national media on our response to Ken Livingstone's outrageous anti-semitic remarks about Hitler and Zionism and when I gave evidence to the Home Affairs Select Committee on anti-semitism. We made a detailed submission to the Chakrabarti Inquiry into antisemitism in the Labour Party and responded to what we saw as the shortcomings in Ms Chakrabarti's report.

This has been the most tumultuous year in British political life in living memory, with a decision by referendum to leave the European Union and a new government. Throughout it all the Board of Deputies has been heard as the clear and calm voice of British Jews, addressing the issues with clarity and firmness of purpose. The Board has had a long and warm relationship with Prime Minister Theresa May. After the Paris attacks, she addressed the Board of Deputies and held up the sign "Je Suis Juif". I met with her as Home Secretary – raising issues ranging from anti-semitic demonstrations to the Syrian refugee crisis – and she lit the Chanukah at the Board's most recent Parliamentary Reception.

Early in my tenure as President, I was pleased to have a number of meetings with Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu. On each occasion I assured him of the Board of Deputies' and the community's steadfast support. Whether it is speaking at demonstrations, making the case in the media, challenging BDS or supporting grassroots advocacy organisations and Christian allies around the country through the excellent work of Steven Jaffe, we have kept that promise and will continue to find new ways to do so.

We continue to be staunch defenders of Jewish schools and Jewish education in both the mainstream and Charedi sectors. When the Hebrew GCSE and A-Level came under threat again this year, we successfully campaigned to protect it. And we have continued to educate others about Judaism, challenging prejudice and ignorance through our sector-leading new textbook on Judaism for non-Jewish schools, written by leading educationalist Clive Lawton. Meanwhile, we have redoubled efforts at interfaith relations with Christians, Muslims, Hindus and others, including through the Government-funded Muslim-Jewish Women's Network Nisa-Nashim and an interfaith project where girls from Jewish, Muslim and Catholic schools came together at Twitter's UK HQ to study computer coding.

We have continued to interact through all levels of government, from desk officer to secretaries of state. This year, we produced the first-ever Jewish manifestos for the Scottish, Welsh and Northern Irish elections, and are planning seminars for local councillors across the country. Our Employer's Guide to Judaism, launched by then Secretary of State for Work and Pensions Iain Duncan Smith, is available online and provides clear and comprehensive information, and we continue to support individual Jewish employees and students to get time off for religious festivals.

We have provided vital services for the community without asking for any more money for 10 years. As our costs have risen over this time, this year the Community Contribution will be slightly increased from £25 to £30 per annum. By working efficiently and keeping costs to a minimum we are happy that we have been able to keep the Community Contribution down to a very affordable figure. I hope you will agree that we are providing excellent value in return for a very modest sum.

In 5777, we will continue to represent your interests as only a democratically elected body can. May this New Year bring you, your families and all of Am Yisrael health, strength and peace.

TWO STORIES I FOUND FUNNY

On the sixth day God turned to the angel Gabriel and said, "Today I am going to create a land called Israel. It will be a land of outstanding natural beauty. It will have rolling hills and mountains full of goats and eagles, a beautiful, sparkling, clear ocean full of sea life and high cliffs overlooking white sandy beaches."

God continued, "And I shall make the land rich in oil to allow the inhabitants to prosper. I shall call these inhabitants "Jews" and they shall be known as the most friendly people on the earth."

"But," asked Gabriel, "Don't you think you're being too generous to these Jews?"

"Not really," replied God, "just wait and see the neighbours I am going to give them."

Moshe was talking to his psychiatrist.

"I had a weird dream recently," he says. "I saw my mother but then I noticed she had your face. I found this so worrying that I immediately awoke and couldn't get back to sleep. I just stayed there thinking about it until 7am. I got up, made myself a slice of toast and some coffee and came straight here. Can you please help me explain the meaning of my dream?"

The psychiatrist kept silent for some time, then said, "One slice of toast and coffee? Do you call that a breakfast?"

Traditionally, Jewish Yahrzeits are remembered on the Hebrew date, which means that there might be some variation in the English date each year.

If the Hebrew date is observed, it must be remembered that the Yahrzeit starts the evening before.

Memorial prayers for the deceased will be recited during the Friday Night Service for those Yahrzeits which fall during the coming week. If a Yahrzeit falls on a Friday Night, please remember that the prayers will usually be recited during the Friday Night Service the week before.
